

Community Relations

Handling of Controversial Issues

In the event that a controversial issue or potentially controversial issue, pertaining to county office of education staff or members of the county board of education, the superintendent should contact the president of the county board. If the president is unavailable, the vice-president should be contacted.

Policy

First Reading 2/18/86
Adopted 3/18/86