

Community Relations

Colleges and Universities

The county board recognizes that relationships with colleges, universities and other post high school educational institutions can greatly enrich the educational opportunities available to the students of this county. Accordingly, the county board will support the proposals for close working relationships whose purpose is improvement of educational opportunities for students.

(cf. 6146.5 - Academic and Vocational Standards of Proficiency)

Legal References: Education Code
11000 et seq. California Academic Partnership Program
44227.5 Teaching methods
44327 Models for professional development
51228 Course of study for admission to California public universities

Policy

First reading 11-15-83
Adopted 12-20-83