

Business

Expenditures

Controls on Expenditures

Statutory Limitations

All constitutional and statutory limitations on the purposes for which moneys derived from particular specified sources may be expended, and all statutory provisions relative to the establishment of specified county office funds, shall be administered by the superintendent by means of budgetary accounting and not by the establishment and maintenance in the county treasury of special school district funds.

Legal Reference: Education Code
41014 Requirement of budgetary accounting

Policy

First reading 4-24-84
Adopted 5-15-84