

Bylaws of the Board

President

The president of the county board shall preside at all meetings of the board, maintain order, enforce the rules of the board at all meetings, sign all bonds, notes, agreements, contracts, titles, and leases and other legal instruments involving the board. He/she shall also prepare the agenda with the Secretary to the Board, make such appointments to committees and selected representatives of the Board as may be required, vote in the case of tie and roll call votes, have the same right as others to engage in discussion without leaving the chair, and be responsible for orientation of new board members.

In case of the resignation, absence, or disability of the president, the vice-president shall perform the duties of the president. In case of the absence or disability of both the president and vice-president, the board shall choose a president pro tempore, who shall perform all of the duties of the president.

The president has the power to call special meetings of the board.
