

BUSINESS AND NONINSTRUCTIONAL OPERATIONS

Sale And Disposal Of Books, Equipment And Supplies

When county office-owned books, equipment and supplies become unusable, obsolete, or no longer needed, the Superintendent or designee shall identify these items to the Inyo County Board of Education, together with their estimated value and a recommendation that they be sold or disposed of by one of the methods prescribed in law and administrative regulations. With Board approval, the Superintendent or designee shall arrange for the sale or disposal of these items.

Instructional materials may be considered obsolete or unusable when they:

1. Contain information rendered inaccurate or incomplete by new discoveries or technologies
2. Have been replaced by more recent versions or editions of the same material and are of no foreseeable value in other instructional areas
3. Contain demeaning, stereotyping or patronizing references to either sex, members of racial, ethnic, religious, vocational or cultural groups, or persons with physical or mental disabilities
4. Have been inspected and discovered to be damaged beyond use or repair

The Superintendent or designee shall establish procedures to be used when selling equipment for which the federal government has a right to receive all or part of the proceeds. These procedures shall ensure a reasonable amount of competition so as to result in the highest possible revenue. (cf. 3440 - Inventories)

BUSINESS AND NONINSTRUCTIONAL OPERATIONS

Sale And Disposal Of Books, Equipment And Supplies

The Inyo County Board of Education may dispose of personal property belonging to the county office by any of the following methods:

1. If the Board members attending a meeting unanimously agree that the property is worth no more than $2,500, the Board may designate any county office employee to sell the property without advertising. (Education Code 17546)
2. The Board may advertise for bids and either sell the property to the highest responsible bidder or reject all bids. (Education Code 17545)

Notice for bids shall be posted in at least three public places in the county for at least two weeks or published at least once a week for at least two weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county and, if possible, published within the county. (Education Code 17545)

Property for which no qualified bid has been received may be sold, without further advertising, by the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 17546)

3. The Board may authorize the sale of the property by means of a public auction conducted by county office employees, employees of other public agencies, or by contract with a private auction firm. Notice related to the auction shall be posted or published as described in item #2 above. (Education Code 17545)
4. Without advertising for bids, the Board may sell the property to agencies of federal, state or local government, to any other school district, or to any agency eligible under the federal surplus property law (40 USC 484(j)(3)). In such cases, the sale price shall equal the cost of the property plus estimated cost of purchasing, storing and handling. (Education Code 17540)
5. Without advertising for bids, the Board may sell or lease the property to agencies of federal, state or local government or to any other school district. In such cases, the price and terms of the sale or lease shall be fixed by the Board and approved by the County Superintendent of Schools. (Education Code 17542)
6. If the Board members attending a meeting unanimously find that the value of the property is insufficient to defray the costs of arranging a sale, the property may be donated to a charitable organization deemed appropriate by the Board or may be disposed of by dumping. (Education Code 17546)

BUSINESS AND NONINSTRUCTIONAL OPERATIONS

Sale And Disposal Of Books, Equipment And Supplies

Money received from the sale of surplus property shall be either deposited in the county office's reserve or general fund or credited to the fund from which the original purchase was made. (Education Code 17547)

Instructional Materials

Surplus or undistributed obsolete instructional materials that are usable for educational purposes may be donated to any governing board, county free library or other state institution; any United States public agency or institution; any nonprofit charitable organization; or children or adults in California or foreign countries for the purpose of increasing literacy. They also may be sold to any organization that agrees to use the materials for educational purposes. (Education Code 60510)

Any organization, agency or institution receiving obsolete instructional materials from the county office shall certify to the Board that it agrees to use the materials for educational purposes and make no charge to any persons to whom the materials are given or lent. (Education Code 60511)

At least 60 days before disposing of these instructional materials, the Board shall notify the public of its intention to do so through a public service announcement on a local television station, in a local newspaper, or by another means the Board believes will most effectively reach the entities described above. The Board shall also permit representatives of these entities and members of the public to address the Board regarding the distribution of these materials. (cf. 9323 - Meeting Conduct)

Surplus or undistributed obsolete instructional materials which are unusable or which cannot be distributed as specified above may be disposed of by either of the following: (Education Code 60530)

1. By being mutilated so as not to be salable and sold for scrap at the highest obtainable price
2. By being destroyed by any economical means at least 30 days after the Board has given notice to all persons who have requested such notice
(cf. 9323.2 - Actions by the Board)
